A. TERMS APPLICABLE TO OFFERS AND SERVICES

A.1 Scope

A.1.1 These Terms and Conditions shall apply to all Subscription, Professional and other Services provided by Matrix42 to the Customer (through a Channel Partner or directly) without Matrix42 having to refer to these in each individual case. Different, contradictory, or additional terms and conditions of the Customer shall not become part of the contract even if Matrix42 does not expressly object to them.

Version: 17.10.2025

A.1.2 By accepting an Offer, Order Form or Agreement referring to these Terms and Conditions, this version of the Terms and Conditions and the updated Supplementary Terms (if any) shall replace all previous Terms and Conditions appended to any previous Order Forms or Agreements between the Parties. The updated Order Form shall always set out the Subscription Services provided to the Customer.

A.2 Rights of use

A.2.1 Matrix42 grants to the Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, limited right and Subscription License to use the Services during the Subscription Period subject to the terms of the Agreement and subject to the due payment of all Fees. The Customer's right to use the Subscription Services is limited to the Customer's internal business operations and internal business purposes only and is limited to the agreed amount, type or other limitation (if any) set out for valid Subscription Licenses.

A.2.2 The Customer may, at its option, provide access and use rights to the Subscription Services to one or more of its Affiliates, subject to all terms in this Agreement. If the Customer provides such access and use rights, the Customer will be wholly responsible for the acts and omissions of the Affiliate. No Affiliate of the Customer or third party using the Subscription Services shall have the right to take any legal action against Matrix42 under the Agreement or any Order Form hereunder unless they have entered into a direct contractual relationship with Matrix42 under Section A.7.3 (Separate Affiliate Ordering) below.

A.2.3 The Customer may not use the Subscription Services for the benefit of any third party or grant any third-party access to use the Subscription Services. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, the Customer shall have the right to grant third parties access to the Subscription Services solely for the benefit and on the behalf of the Customer where (i) the Subscription Services form a part of a service the Customer is offering to its own customers, or (ii) where third parties (such as agency-hired labor or consultants) are performing work for or behalf of the Customer and they require access to the Subscription Services for such purpose.

A.2.4 The Customer shall be solely responsible for ensuring that it has at all times the required number and type of Subscription Licenses to cover all use of the Subscription Services by the Customer or any third party accessing the Subscription Services on the behalf of the Customer. The Customer shall be solely responsible for any use of the Subscription Services (including any breach of the Agreement) by the Customer or any third party accessing the Subscription Services on behalf of the Customer.

A.2.5 The Customer shall not without Matrix42's prior written consent and a valid Subscription License employ any hardware, software, device or technique to pool connections or reduce the number of users that access or use the Subscription Services (also referred to as "virtualization", "anonymizing", "multiplexing" or "pooling") in order to circumvent any restrictions on scope of authorized use, including but not limited to the number of Subscription Licenses.

A.3 Provision of Subscription Services

A.3.1 The Subscription Services are described in detail in the Order Form and Service Description. Depending on the selected deployment model, Matrix42 shall deliver the (i) Cloud Services to the Access Point; or (ii) the object code of Software Services in download format to be used by the Customer in its own system environment according to Matrix42 specifications; to enable the use by the Customer substantially as set out in the Agreement.

A.3.2 Matrix42 constantly develops its service offering and reserves the right to make changes to the Subscription Services, including the Service Descriptions, particularly, as a result of amendments of law or to ensure better functionality of its Subscription Services, at any time by notifying the Customer in writing. However, Matrix42 is only entitled to make changes if these changes do not significantly change or impair the basic scope of the obligation to perform and the quality of the service. If a change made by Matrix42 has a material adverse effect on the agreed functionality of the Subscription Services or the agreed service levels, Matrix42 shall inform the Customer of such change at least thirty (30) days before the effective date of the change. In such case the Customer may terminate the Agreement to the effective date by providing written notice to Matrix42 in writing no later than on the effective date of the change. If the Customer does not update or accept an update to the latest version offered by Matrix42 to the Subscription Services (including, but not limited to electing to use the so-called LTSB version of the Subscription Services), and the Customer suffers any damages as a result thereof, Matrix42 shall not be liable for such damage unless caused by Matrix42's intent or gross negligence.

A.3.3 Matrix42 shall have the right, but no obligation to make changes to the Subscription Services that (i) concern or relate to the production environment of the Subscription Services and do not have a material adverse effect on the agreed contents of the Subscription Services or the agreed service level, (ii) are necessary to prevent any data security risk to the Subscription Services or (iii) result from law or an administrative order. For the avoidance of doubt, neither Party may terminate the Agreement due to changes set out in this Section A.3.3.

A.3.4 For Software Services the Customer shall be responsible for back-up of Customer Material. In the scope of this Section Matrix42 may always assume that all of the Customer's data with which they come into contact are backed-up.

A.3.5 Matrix42 may remotely review Customer's use of the Subscription Service, and on Matrix42's written request, Customer will provide reasonable assistance to verify Customer's compliance with the Agreement, and access to and use of the Subscription Service. If Matrix42 determines that Customer has exceeded its permitted access and use rights to the Subscription Service or is otherwise in breach of the Agreement, Matrix42 will notify Customer and within 14 days thereafter Customer shall purchase additional subscriptions commensurate with Customer's actual use. In addition, Matrix42 may exercise its rights under Section A.8.2.

A.3.6 The Customer shall grant Matrix42 (during the Customer's normal office hours) access to the rooms and/or computers on which the Software Services are hosted and to which Matrix42 requires access in order to fulfil its contractual obligations or audit rights.

A.3.7 The Customer shall not without Matrix42's prior written consent, and without a valid Subscription License for such activities, use any automated system in a manner that sends more requests to the Subscription Services' environment than a single human could reasonably produce in the same period and/or technologies that try to follow User behavior. Automated systems within the meaning of this section includes but is not limited to robotic process automation (RPA), AI agents, robots, spiders or readers, that simulate end-user activities and access the Subscription Services via the Subscription Services' end-user interface or any unauthorized API or other similar interface.

A.4 Cloud Services

The following shall apply to Cloud Services and complement what is stated under Section A.3 on Subscription Services.

A.4.1 Matrix42 shall take back-up copies of the Customer Material uploaded to Cloud Services in accordance with the Service Description as applicable from time to time, provided that Matrix42 has continuous technical access to the Customers Subscription Service. If Matrix42 has no continuous technical access to the Cloud Services due to the selected deployment model, the Customer shall be responsible for back-up of Customer Material and Matrix42 may always assume that all of the Customer's data with which they come into contact are backed-up.

A.4.2 Matrix42 shall use commercially reasonable efforts to make the Cloud Services available twenty-four (24) hours a day, 7 days a week, except for: (i) planned downtime; and (ii) any unavailability caused by circumstances beyond our reasonable control.

A.4.3 Matrix42 may suspend the provision of the Cloud Services for a reasonable period of time if this is necessary in order to perform installation, change or maintenance work in respect of the Cloud Services or if such suspension results from installation, change or maintenance work in respect of public communication networks. In this case, the Customer is not entitled to claim compensation.

A.4.4 Matrix42 may deny the Customer access to Cloud Services, if the Customer uses Cloud Services in a manner that unreasonably burdens the Cloud Services or otherwise jeopardizes the provision of the Cloud Services to other users. In this case, the Customer is not entitled to claim compensation.

A.4.5 In the case of destruction, loss, alteration or damage of any Customer Material stored in Cloud Services, Matrix42 shall, upon the request of the Customer, use its reasonable efforts to recover such Customer Material. Matrix42 may charge all reasonable costs and expenses arising from any such work, if the destruction, loss, alteration or damage of the Customer Material arises from or is caused by any act, non-compliance or negligence of the Customer.

A.5 Support Services

A.5.1 Matrix42 shall deliver the Support Services to the Customer as set out in the Service Description and Agreement, unless the Customer has purchased Support Services from the Channel Partner from which it has purchased the Subscription Services. In such case, the agreement between the Customer and Channel Partner shall govern the provision of Support Services and Matrix42 shall not be liable to deliver Support Services to the Customer. For clarity, in such case, the provisions regarding Support Services in the Service Description shall not apply.

A.5.2 Matrix42 reserves the right to make changes to the Support Services at any time. If a change made by Matrix42 has a material adverse effect on the use of Support Services, Matrix42 shall inform the Customer and the Customer has the rights as set out in Section A.3.2 above.

A.5.3 Provision of Support Services is always subject to continuous technical access to Customers Cloud Service by Matrix42. Where technical access is not provided continuously, Matrix42 may at its discretion limit the scope of the Support Services and/or the applicability of any service levels (if any). In this case, the Customer is not entitled to claim compensation.

A.5.4 The Support Services provided by Matrix42 relate solely to the Subscription Services. Matrix42 does not separately offer Support Services applicable to Third Party Software, integrations or any other software, products or services supplied by any Supplier or third party.

A.6 Term and Termination

A.6.1 An Agreement concerning Subscription Services and/or Support Services shall enter into force on the first day of Basic Term as set out on the Order Form and remain valid until the end of the Basic Term. Thereafter the Agreement and Subscription Term shall continue to be valid for Renewal Term(s) of twelve (12) months, unless terminated by either Party with a written notice of at least three (3) months prior to end of Basic Term or then current Renewal Term. In case no Basic Term is agreed, the Basic Term shall be twenty-four (24) months.

A.6.2 Upon termination of the Agreement for any reason, the Customer shall immediately cease using the Subscription Services and/or the Support Services. At the request of the Customer, Matrix42 shall return the Customer Material in a generally used electronic format by way of physical media or by way of providing the Customer with access to the material online. Matrix42 may charge reasonable costs and expenses arising from the collection and processing of the Customer Material and returning it to the Customer, if the Customer requests return in a non-standard format as defined by Matrix42.

A.6.3 Matrix42's obligation to store Customer Material ends when fourteen (14) days have passed from the termination of the Agreement. Thereafter, Matrix42 has the right to destroy and erase such Customer Material if the Customer has not requested returning such material. Furthermore, Matrix42 may destroy or store such Customer Material to the extent Matrix42 may be obliged to do so under applicable law or due to an administrative order.

A.6.4 Matrix42 may at its choice and without any obligation to pay damages or other compensation to the Customer, either (i) deny and suspend the provision of any Services and order Customer to suspend the use of Software Services; or (ii) terminate the Agreement with immediate effect, provided that Matrix42 first provides a written warning to the Customer, if:

A.6.4.1 the Customer is in default with its payment of any Fees due under the Agreement and does not pay such Fees despite a request to pay within fourteen (14) days from the date of such request

A.6.4.2 Matrix42 reasonably suspects that the Customer uses or has allowed any third party to use the Subscription Services contrary to the Agreement, applicable laws or administrative orders;

A.6.4.3 Matrix42 suspects that the use of Subscription Services poses a data security risk to the Services or either Party; or

A.6.4.4 if applicable laws or administrative orders require Matrix42 to do so.

A.6.5 Each Party may terminate the Agreement with immediate effect upon written notice to the other Party if:

A.6.5.1 a Party ceases to conduct its business, is adjudicated in bankruptcy or liquidation or corporate restructuring, is found insolvent in recovery proceedings or if a material default in payment has been registered to the other Party;

A.6.5.2 the other Party is in material breach of the terms and conditions of the Agreement and fails to remedy such breach within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of a written notice by the non-defaulting Party, such written notice detailing the breach and the intention to terminate.

A.6.6 Upon expiration of any free trial or pilot periods, Matrix42 may immediately suspend Customer's access to the free trial or pilot Services. Customer must export Customer Material before the end of the free trial or Customer Data will be permanently deleted. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Matrix42 will have no obligation to maintain, store, or otherwise retain Customer Data beyond the end of the free trial period.

A.6.7 The Customer's right to terminate under Articles 23(a) and 25(c)–(d) of the European Union Data Act (Regulation (EU) 2023/2854) shall remain unaffected by this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, any termination under the said articles of the Data Act shall be subject to a termination fee in the amount of the agreed Fees payable under the remaining agreed Subscription Term and possible notice periods for the Services in question.

A.7 Orders

A.7.1 Customer may order any Services directly from Matrix42 or through a Channel Partner. Any orders through a Channel Partner are pursuant to a separate agreement with the Channel Partner. If so agreed between the Customer and the Channel Partner, the Customer's use of any Services procured through a Channel Partner will be subject to these Terms and Conditions (including any Supplementary Terms, if applicable), but all fees payable (including all applicable taxes) for such use will be payable to the Channel Partner pursuant to the terms agreed to between Customer and Channel Partner.

A.7.2 To order Services directly from Matrix42, the Customer shall request a written Offer. Matrix42 shall be bound by Offers for 14 days from the date of the Offer. An Offer shall constitute an Order Form between Matrix42 and the Customer once accepted in writing by a representative of the Customer. The Customer warrants that any representative of the Customer concluding Order Form(s) and an Agreement with Matrix42 has the right to make legally binding commitments on behalf of the Customer. Changes and additions to an Offer by the Customer shall constitute a rejection of the original Offer and the submission of a new offer by the Customer. Matrix42 may accept such new offer by the Customer within 14 days of receipt of the new offer expressly in writing, by starting to execute the delivery of Service referred to in the new offer by the Customer or by issuing an invoice to the Customer. The written acceptance of such new offer by Matrix42 or commencement of delivery of the Service shall constitute an Order Form between the Parties.

A.7.3 Subject to the parties executing a mutually agreed upon Order Form, Affiliates of the Customer may order the Subscription Services, hosted on a separate instance, by signing an Order Form that references this Agreement directly with Matrix42. This will establish a new and separate agreement between the Affiliate of the Customer and the Matrix42 entity signing such Order Form. A Customer may not purchase additional Subscription Services for an instance of the Affiliate or vice versa.

A.7.4 Matrix42 (or the Channel Partner, as applicable) reserves the right to increase the applicable Fees where this is justified due to: (i) the general increase in Matrix42's (or the Channel Partner's) costs and expenses of production (such as but not limited to general increase of labor costs and expenses), in which case an increase in Fees may occur once per calendar year; or (ii) an increase of costs of Third Party Software. Matrix42 (or as applicable, the Channel Partner) shall inform the Customer of such increase at least sixty (60) days before the effective date of the change. In such a case the Customer may terminate the Agreement subject to thirty (30) days' prior written notice. The termination notice must be delivered to Matrix42 (or Channel Partner, if the Services have been acquired through a Channel Partner) in writing prior to the effective date of the change.

A.8 Fees

Section A.8 shall not apply to orders through Channel Partners.

A.8.1 The Fees applicable to the Services are set out in the Order Form. All rates and Fees are quoted without value added tax (VAT) or any other applicable sales tax, which shall be added to the rates and Fees in accordance with the then-applicable tax laws and regulations. Any Fees offered or agreed in an individual Offer, Order Form or Agreement do not constitute a binding offer to provide any Services at the same prices in future.

A.8.2 Any Services not expressly ordered on the Agreement, but consumed by the Customer (such as, but not limited to Subscription Services or Professional Services not included in Support Services) are charged and invoiced automatically in accordance with Matrix42's standard fees as applicable from time to time.

A.9 Terms of Payment and invoicing

Section A.9 shall not apply to orders through Channel Partners.

A.9.1 All Fees are due (i) on the day before the start of the invoicing period; or (ii) due date stated in the invoice; whichever is later. All Subscription Services and additional Support Services are invoiced in advance for a period of twelve (12) months at a time. Where the remaining Subscription Term is less, the final invoicing period under the Subscription Term shall be adjusted. In case of additional Orders for Subscription Services, their invoicing term shall be co-terminated with first Order of the Customer.

A.9.2 The terms of payment of each invoice shall be fourteen (14) days net from the date of the invoice.

A.9.3 Overdue interest on any amounts overdue shall accrue (i) at a rate of 1.5% per month; or (ii) the legal maximum overdue interest rate in the country of domicile of the Matrix42 entity identified on the Order Form, whichever is higher. If the Customer fails to pay any Fees within thirty (30) days from the date such Fees have fallen due, Matrix42 may in its discretion either suspend the performance of its obligations under the Agreement, or terminate the Agreement with immediate effect and without any liability towards the Customer.

A.9.4 The Customer shall only be entitled to set-off if its counterclaim has been legally established or is undisputed. This exclusion of set-off shall not apply to a counterclaim on account of a defect that is based on the same contractual relationship as the Matrix42 claim. The Customer shall only be entitled to exercise a right of retention to the extent that its counterclaim is based on the same contractual relationship.

A.10 General Obligations of the Parties

A.10.1 Both Parties undertake to perform all tasks and fulfil all of their obligations under the Agreement in a timely manner and with due care. The Parties undertake to make all required decisions without undue delay. The Customer is solely responsible for ensuring that the Services are fit for the purpose of use intended by the Customer.

A.10.2 The Customer shall be responsible for its and its third parties devices, systems, applications, connections and software as well as their functionality. The Customer shall be responsible for the protection of the Customer's data communications and data systems and costs for communications and other comparable costs related to the use of the Services. The Customer shall be responsible for preparing the hardware, connections, software and data systems to meet the operating environment specifications delivered by Matrix42.

A.10.3 The Customer shall ensure that its employees and third parties using the Subscription Services on the Customer's behalf maintain their user names and passwords diligently and do not disclose them to any third parties. The Customer shall be responsible for all use of the Subscription

Services under the Customer's user accounts. The Customer undertakes to inform Matrix42 without delay if any password has been revealed to a third party or if the Customer has a reason to suspect any misuse of a user account. Matrix42 may require the Customer to change any password to ensure data security and other security of the Subscription Services. The Customer shall change any password promptly upon the written request of Matrix42.

A.10.4 In case of errors or defects in the Services, the Customer shall provide a written notice to Matrix42 within seven (7) days containing as detailed a description of the defect as possible. Upon request, the customer shall provide Matrix42, to the extent possible and reasonable, with documents and information that Matrix42 requires to assess and remedy the defect. The customer shall give Matrix42 the opportunity to inspect any reported errors or defects. If the notice of defect turns out to be unfounded, Matrix42 shall be entitled to demand compensation for the expenses incurred for the investigation in the form of Professional Services.

A.10.5 Customer claims in the event of defects shall be limited to thirty (30) days. The limitation period shall also be one year for Customer claims for damages and reimbursement of expenses that are not based on a product defect.

A.10.6 If the Customer has concluded the Agreement with a Channel Partner, any claims relating to the Subscription Services or the Support Services other than claims for damages (such as but not limited to claims for service credits, or other claims for refunds) shall exclusively be addressed at the Channel Partner. The Channel Partner may consequently apply service credits or refunds in proportion to the Fees paid by Customer to the Channel Partner, and the discharge by the Channel Partner of such obligations will relieve Matrix42 of the same under this Agreement.

A.11 Intellectual Property Rights

A.11.1 All rights, title and interest, including all Intellectual Property Rights in and to the Services, changes thereto and any results of the Support and Professional Services shall belong exclusively to Matrix42 or its licensors. Except for the express license to use the Services granted to the Customer under the Agreement, the Customer shall not obtain any rights or interests in and to the Services or any Intellectual Property Rights pertaining thereto.

A.11.2 All Third Party Software is exclusively supplied, licensed and made available subject to the standard terms and conditions of the respective supplier or developer of the Third Party Software in question (including but not limited to the terms of use, terms of warranty and terms of indemnity). The applicable Third Party Software license terms and conditions are made available under the "Legal Notice" section, or similar, of the Subscription Services user interface or appended to the Agreement as an appendix, as the case may be.

A.11.3 All rights, title and interest, including all Intellectual Property Rights in and to the Customer Materials shall belong exclusively to the Customer or a third party. The Customer grants to Matrix42 a non-exclusive right and license to use the Customer Material for the sole purpose of providing the Services to the Customer. Furthermore, the Customer grants to Matrix42 a non-exclusive and royalty-free right and license to analyze, use and exploit for the benefit of its services and business, and incorporate into its services any non-personal and/or anonymous data created by or for the Customer in connection with the Customer's use of the Services, including but not limited to telemetry data regarding the use of the Services. For the avoidance of doubt, Matrix42 owns all Intellectual Property Rights to statistical data, services analyses or other content or results that Matrix42 compiles or creates based on the Customer's use of the Services.

A.11.4 The Customer shall be responsible that the Customer Material does not infringe upon any third party rights or applicable laws or regulations. By submitting data to Matrix42 or to the Subscription Services the Customer warrants that it has obtained the necessary rights under the applicable laws and agreements to submit the data to Matrix42 or its subcontractors or to the Subscription Services and have Matrix42 process such data for the purposes of the Agreement.

A.12 Indemnification

A.12.1 Matrix42 undertakes, at its expense, to defend the Customer against any third party claim or action where a third party claims that the (i) Subscription Services or the use of the Subscription Services in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement and/or (ii) Services, as applicable, infringe upon the Intellectual Property Rights of a third party valid in the European Economic Area (EEA), provided that the Customer (i) notifies Matrix42 immediately in writing of the claim or action; (ii) grants Matrix42 the sole exclusive right and control over the defense of the claim or action; (iii) gives Matrix42, free of charge, any information, assistance and authorizations necessary to handle the defense of the claim or action; and (iv) does not, without the express prior written consent of Matrix42, agree on any settlement of the claim or action prior to a final judgment thereon by a competent court of law or court of arbitration. If the Customer has acted in accordance with what has been set out in this Section A.12.1, Matrix42 shall pay final damages awarded to such a third party by a competent court of law or court of arbitration or agreed to be paid in settlement by Matrix42.

A.12.2 If Matrix42 justifiably deems that the Services, as applicable, infringe or may infringe upon any third party rights, Matrix42 shall have the right, at its own expense and in its sole discretion, to (i) acquire for the Customer the right to continue the use of the Services or (ii) replace the Services or (iii) modify the Services to the extent necessary to avoid the infringement.

A.12.3 If none of the alternatives set out in Section A.12.2 are available to Matrix42 on commercially reasonable terms and/or without the significant loss of time, Matrix42 shall have the right to terminate the Customer's Service and/or the Agreement subject to a notice period defined by Matrix42, upon which the Customer agrees to cease using the Services and Matrix42 agrees to reimburse the Fees paid by the Customer for the terminated Services, less a proportion equal to the time of use of the Subscription Services or Support Services by the Customer.

A.12.4 The indemnity obligations set out in this Section A.12 shall not apply to, and Matrix42 is not liable for any claim, that (i) is based on a claim by any Customer Affiliate; or (ii) is based on the modification or alteration of the Services or a modification or alteration influencing the Services by the Customer or any third party; or (iii) results from complying with any instructions, specifications or design given by the Customer or any third party under the command and control of the Customer; (iv) arises or results from the use of the Services in combination with any software, equipment or products not developed or supplied by Matrix42 or which are contrary to instructions given by Matrix42; or (v) could have been avoided by using the latest version of the Services made available by Matrix42 to the Customer.
