

General Terms and Conditions of Business of Matrix42 GmbH

(Last updated: 11/2022)

I.

General Terms and Conditions

1. Scope, Protective Clause, and Conclusion of Contract

- 1.1. These Terms and Conditions shall only apply to companies in accordance with Section 14 of the German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch, or BGB), legal entities under public law, and special funds under public law. These Terms and Conditions shall apply exclusively to all (including future) deliveries and services provided by Matrix42, without Matrix42 having to refer to these in each individual case. Different, contradictory, or additional terms and conditions of the Customer shall only form part of a contract insofar as Matrix42 has expressly agreed to them in writing.
- 1.2. Licenses (EULAs), services, support, and prices shall be specified in separate agreements ("Specification") (for example, Matrix42 quotation or service description). Quotations provided by Matrix42 shall always be non-binding. Orders, additions, and changes to Customer orders shall not be accepted until they have been confirmed in writing by Matrix42. Performance of a delivery or service, receipt of a delivery note, or an invoice by a Customer shall be considered confirmation.
- 1.3. Any changes or amendments to the respective agreement or these Terms and Conditions must be in writing in order to be effective. Electronic form shall also constitute compliance with the written form agreed in these Terms and Conditions.
- 1.4. The Product Use Guidelines in its respective valid version, which is available at www.matrix42.com/en/terms-and-conditions/ at any time, shall apply in addition to these General Terms and Conditions.

2. Remuneration, Payment Terms, and Default of Payment

- 2.1. The prices indicated in order confirmations and service descriptions or other agreements or the Matrix42 list prices valid on conclusion of a contract shall apply, in each case plus the statutory value-added tax.
- 2.2. Matrix42 receivables shall be due within 14 days of invoicing and payable without deduction in euros. Invoicing shall be paperless, and invoices will be sent in digital format via e-mail.
- 2.3. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Specification, the license fee shall be due in full in advance at the beginning of the contract for the basic term of the contract and then at the beginning of each renewal term for each respective renewal term. An increase in the number of usage units ordered (or a change to a higher service package) shall be possible at any time; a reduction (or change to a lower service package) shall be possible only with effect from the end of the basic term or any renewal term, or earlier with the consent of Matrix42. In the event of an increase in the number of usage units ordered during the basic term or any renewal term, the additional fees shall be charged on a pro rata basis. With regard to additional usage units, the prices corresponding to the Matrix42 price list valid at the time of ordering the additional units shall apply.
- 2.4. Should a Customer default on a payment or a substantial portion of a payment for two calendar months, or, in a period extending over more than two months, default on a payment that corresponds to twice a monthly license fee, Matrix42 shall be entitled, after a warning to this effect by e-mail or letter, to terminate the contract extraordinarily with immediate effect and/or block the use of the Software.
- 2.5. The Customer shall only be entitled to set-off if its counterclaim has been legally established or is undisputed. This exclusion of set-off shall not apply to a counterclaim on account of a defect that is based on the same contractual relationship as the Matrix42 claim. The Customer shall only be entitled to exercise a right of retention to the extent that its counterclaim is based on the same contractual relationship.

3. Data Backup, Customer Cooperation

- 3.1. The Customer shall be responsible for ensuring regular and appropriate backup of its data. Matrix42 employees may always assume that all of the Customer's data with which they come into contact are backed up; this shall apply particularly in the context of support.

- 3.2. Matrix42's obligation to perform shall remain in abeyance while a Customer is in substantial arrears with a contractual obligation. Costs that Matrix42 incurs as a result shall be borne by the Customer. If a Customer delays acceptance or negligently violates any other obligations to cooperate, Matrix42 shall be entitled, without prejudice to other claims, to demand compensation for damages incurred by Matrix42, including any additional expenses.
- 3.3. In order that a Matrix42 cloud service can be provided according to contract, the Customer shall be obliged to fulfill the Matrix42 requirements in terms of Internet connection, hardware, and other system requirements as per the description of services. The Customer must keep credentials needed to access the cloud service confidential and may not give these to its own employees or third parties, unless this is a requirement under the agreed use of the cloud service.

4. Claims by the Customer in the Event of Defects

- 4.1. Claims by a Customer in the event of defects shall require immediate investigation and notification of the defect without delay following delivery – no later than within two weeks – in the case of an identifiable defect; in the case of hidden defects within two weeks of their discovery.
- 4.2. Complaints should contain as detailed a description of the defect as possible. On request, the Customer shall provide Matrix42 with documents and information required by Matrix42 to assess and rectify the defect, as far as it is possible and reasonable.
- 4.3. The Customer shall give Matrix42 an opportunity to investigate complaints. If a complaint turns out to be unfounded, the Customer shall compensate Matrix42 for the expenses incurred for such investigation unless it is not responsible for the unfounded complaint.
- 4.4. In the case of a defect under the terms of a purchase agreement, Matrix42 shall be obliged, at Matrix42's choice, to remedy the defect or replace (subsequent performance). In the event of failure, unreasonableness, or refusal of subsequent performance, the Customer may reduce the price or, in the case of significant defects, withdraw from the contract and/or request compensation pursuant to Section 5.

5. Liability

- 5.1. Matrix42's liability for damages and reimbursement of expenses for slight negligence, in particular due to breach of duties arising from the contractual obligation and due to unauthorized action, shall be excluded, unless Matrix42 has breached an essential contractual obligation, that is, an obligation, the fulfillment of which makes the proper execution of the contract possible (cardinal duty) in the first place, or on compliance with which the Customer may regularly depend. In this case, liability on the part of Matrix42 shall be limited to foreseeable damage that is typical for the contract, and should have been expected by Matrix42 when concluding the contract due to circumstances known to Matrix42. Liability on the part of Matrix42 for damages resulting from injury to body, life, or health, for willful intent and gross negligence, for the failure to provide a guaranteed quality, and under the terms of the Product Liability Act shall, however, be unlimited.

- 5.2. Damage of up to €250,000 per damage event shall be considered as foreseeable and typical for the contract within the meaning of Section 5.1.
- 5.3. Liability on the part of Matrix42 for loss of profit and other pure financial losses shall be excluded, except in cases of willful intent.
- 5.4. In the event of a loss of data, liability on the part of Matrix42 shall be limited to the typical recovery expenses that would be incurred through making regular backup copies in accordance with the risk involved. Moreover, Matrix42 shall only be liable provided the Customer has ensured through appropriate data backup measures that the data can be recovered with reasonable effort.
- 5.5. The aforementioned provisions shall apply accordingly to liability for compensation for wasted expenditures.
- 5.6. Matrix42 shall not be liable to the Customer for damages that are incurred as a result of third party companies commissioned by the Customer not providing their service, providing it late or not providing it properly.

6. Limitation in Respect of Defect Claims and Claims for Damages

Customer claims in the event of defects shall be limited to one year. The limitation period shall also be one year for Customer claims for damages and reimbursement of expenses that are not based on a product defect. However, these reduced limitation periods shall not apply to claims by a Customer on account of injury to life, health, or body or to claims based on a wilfully or grossly negligent breach of obligation.

7. Term of Contract and Termination in the case of Software Lease and SaaS

- 7.1. Contracts shall be concluded for a specific term as defined in the Specification (for example, 12 months) ("Basic Term") and shall then renew automatically for the same period ("Renewal Term"), unless a contract is terminated by either party with a notice period of three months ("Notice Period") to the end of the Basic Term or a Renewal Term. The right to termination for good cause shall remain unaffected. Section 2.3 of the General Terms and Conditions shall apply to a reduction in the number of usage units. If no Basic and/or Renewal Term is specified in the Specification, this shall be 12 months respectively.

7.2. The right to termination for good cause shall remain unaffected. Matrix42 shall have good cause, for example, if a Customer violates the Terms and Conditions of Use.

7.3. Any notice of termination must be given in writing to be effective.

8. Price Changes for Software Lease and SaaS

Matrix42 shall be entitled to increase the remuneration for the Customer for the first time after the expiry of 12 months after the commencement of the contract and at most once a year with a notice period of three months in accordance with the development of costs at Matrix42. Matrix42 may pass on any additional cost increases for advance services by third parties, except insofar as Matrix42 has caused them. As soon as the remuneration increases by more than 5%, the customer shall be entitled to terminate the contract with extraordinary effect as of the date on which the increase takes effect by giving six weeks' notice after receipt of the request for increase. In the event of a reduction of the corresponding costs, the customer may also demand a corresponding reduction of the remuneration for the first time after the expiry of 12 months. The announcement of a price adjustment shall be made by e-mail to the address deposited with Matrix42 AG for contract communication.

The minimum contract period is 12 months. Matrix42 shall have the right to ordinary termination of the contract in accordance with Section 7.1

Commented [ZB1]: New price adjustment clause

9. Confidentiality and References

9.1. The Parties shall treat as confidential information of the other Contracting Party that is clearly of a confidential nature or is designated as confidential by the other Contracting Party, shall not disclose it to third parties, and shall treat it like their own trade and business secrets. This shall not apply to information if and to the extent that it is lawfully commonly known, or the other Contracting Party has consented in writing to its disclosure in individual cases.

9.2. Matrix42 may use Customer names and company logos in a list of customers, on the Matrix42 website, for example, as a reference and for advertising purposes, as well as on the Internet and in online services, in particular to reproduce, distribute, process, and make these publicly accessible. The Customer may withdraw its consent with future effect at any time, whereby it shall allow Matrix42 an appropriate period in which to change and use up printed material.

10. Applicable Law, Severability Clause, Order of Priority

- 10.1. German law shall apply to the exclusion of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CISG). The place of jurisdiction for all disputes arising from or in connection with the contractual relationship shall be the registered office of Matrix42 or, at Matrix42's choice, the registered office of the Customer if the Customer is a merchant, a legal entity under public law, or a special fund under public law. This shall also apply in cases where a Customer has no general domestic place of jurisdiction, has moved its place of residency or habitual abode abroad after concluding a contract, or neither the Customer's place of residence nor its habitual abode is known at the time when legal action is filed.
- 10.2. In the event that a provision in this Agreement is or becomes invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions.
- 10.3. The following order of priority shall apply to arrangements affecting the contractual relationship:
- a) Specification (including EULA)
 - b) Annexes
 - c) These General Terms and Conditions
 - d) Statutory provisions

II.Service Terms and Conditions

In addition to the General Terms and Conditions, the following terms and conditions shall apply to Services (in particular installation, support, advice, and training):

1. Cooperation

The Customer shall provide Matrix42 with all necessary information and shall create the conditions in its operating environment that are required in order to provide the services, in particular access to the necessary IT systems.

2. Rights of Use in Respect of Work Results

Upon payment of the corresponding invoice, Matrix42 shall grant the Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable, spatially and temporally right to internal use Work Results within the scope of the contractually agreed purpose.

3. Service Description

3.1. Work, terms and conditions, and prices of services to be provided by Matrix42 shall be agreed in a service description. Without a service description, Matrix42 shall not be obliged to provide services.

3.2. Quotations and deadlines shall only be binding if they have been expressly agreed in the respective service description. Service descriptions and statements of costs are based on estimates and are produced on the basis of information made available by the Customer; Matrix42 will update such estimates at the Customer's request.

4. Surcharges for Night Work and Work on Sundays and Public Holidays

The agreed hourly and/or daily rates shall increase by 50% if a service is to be performed at the Customer's request on a Saturday or during the period between 6 pm and 8 am; they shall increase by 100% if a service is performed at the Customer's request on a Sunday or public holiday (the German state of Hesse).

5. Time Sheets and Travel Expenses

- 5.1. The Customer shall confirm the hours/days spent by employees deployed at the Customer's business premises at the end of a day and/or a week with its signature in writing. Such written confirmation shall form the basis for our invoices to the Customer.
- 5.2. Travel time shall be charged at the agreed hourly or daily rates.
- 5.3. Travel costs and expenses shall be reimbursed to us by the Customer, in addition to the agreed remuneration against proof of these.

IV.

Maintenance and Support

In addition to the General Terms and Conditions, the following terms and conditions shall apply to support:

1. Support

- 1.1. Matrix42 shall provide support in accordance with a Support Service Description. Support Service Descriptions shall also include details of the conditions under which support will be provided, in particular cooperation on the part of the Customer. Matrix42 may modify support in accordance with technical advancement and development of the Software taking the legitimate interests of the Customer into account. Matrix42 shall give three months' notice of modifications unless only minor modifications are involved. In the event of a modification that is disadvantageous to the legitimate interests of a Customer, the Customer may terminate support prematurely within one month of receiving notification of the date on which the modification will be introduced.
- 1.2. It is imperative for Matrix42 support that the Customer or its employees have received training in the use of the Matrix42 Software.
- 1.3. In all requests for support, the Customer must describe the problem in as much detail as possible, and so that it can be reproduced. Resources provided by Matrix42 for this purpose, for example, checklists or a ticket system, must be used. Problems should only be reported by qualified personnel appointed by the Customer.
- 1.4. In addition the Terms and Conditions for Maintenance and Support available at <https://www.matrix42.com/tcsupport/> shall apply.

2. Fees

- 2.1. Unless otherwise agreed, fees shall be determined in accordance with the Matrix42 list prices plus statutory VAT and shall be payable per year of contract in advance by the tenth working day of the respective year of contract. A calculation shall be made for support commencing upon delivery of the Software.
- 2.2. Matrix42 may increase support fees by a maximum of 5% once in each year of contract giving six weeks' notice in writing to the Customer, in accordance with cost increases for Matrix42 that cannot be balanced out by cost reductions. If a Customer does not object to an increase within one month of receiving notification of the increase, the new fee shall be deemed accepted. However, Matrix42 shall be entitled to terminate the contract within one month of receiving an objection giving three months' notice. Matrix42 shall make explicit reference to these legal consequences in the notice of increase.

3. Term of Contract and Termination

Support shall commence on the agreed date. It shall run for one year and shall be extended by a further year unless it is terminated by one of the Parties at the end of the respective contract giving three months' notice. The right to extraordinary termination for good cause shall remain unaffected. All terminations shall be required in writing, which includes by fax, but not by e-mail.

4. Update and Upgrade Service

- 4.1 If and to the extent that Matrix42 brings to market any updates or upgrades for the standard version of the Software during the term of a contract, Matrix42 shall make these updates/upgrades available to the Customer as a download. For these updates and/or upgrades, Matrix42 shall grant the Customer the same rights of use and material defects rights as were granted to the Customer for the original version of the Software under its software purchase or lease agreement. The EULA can be viewed at <https://www.matrix42.com/en/terms-and-conditions/>.

The limitation period for material defects shall begin on the date on which the Customer was able to use the update or upgrade (for example, upon receiving a message that the update/upgrade is available for download).

With respect to the rights of use, the rights to the updates/upgrades shall, after a reasonable transition period – usually not more than one year – replace the rights to the previous versions. The Customer may archive a copy of the old version of the software.

4.2 Key features of the updates/upgrades. The updates/upgrades may serve for the debugging of the Software and/or modify and/or expand and/or improve the Software functions or include new features.

The scope of the features in the updates/upgrades is shown in detail in the respective information provided about the Software.

5. Use of Latest Software Versions

The Customer shall use the latest Software version provided to it, including updates and upgrades, unless such use represents an unreasonable burden to the Customer. An enhanced maintenance package and/or fee-based support can be requested from Matrix42.
